HAROLD IVAN SMITH

MA, ED.S., FT, DMin

Program for Professionals:

THE HEROES YOU NEVER SEE: BRINGING YOUR WHOLE SELF TO COMPASSIONATE CARE SETTINGS

A virtual program for caregiving professionals, including Hospice and Healthcare Professionals, Funeral Directors, Counselors/Therapists, and Volunteer Caregivers.

Tuesday, April 11th, 2023

8:00am Pacific / 9:00am Mountain / 10:00am Central / 11:00am Eastern

Sooner or later, regardless of credentials, vita, resume, or years of service, a professional experiences the "I don't know what to say" moment. Such moments immediately challenge our sense of professional competence. What happens with that moment is critical for a client and for the clinician. Such moments offer an opportunity to be an accompanero—one who accompanies in the absence of solutions; one who shows up and keeps showing up!

Program for the Community:

THERE'S A LOT MORE TO GRIEF THAN STAGES

A virtual program for anyone who has experienced a loss or is supporting a grieving loved one through loss.

Tuesday April 11th, 2023

4:00pm Pacific / 5:00pm Mountain / 6:00pm Central / 7:00pm Eastern

Grief is about far more than processing through five stages. This seminar examines new understandings of grief - particularly the tasks of grief - plus the role of resilience. We will also look at non-finite losses such as divorce, loss of a job, etc.
